

STONS Developer Arena solution based on IBM Rational helps you transform how you design, develop and deliver both software and software embedded hardware , to create more innovative products and services, faster than your competition, with lower costs and reduced risk.

Whether you are using formal and agile methods, reduce the high costs, inefficiency and risks of fragmented software development without compromising software quality with proven, integrated ALM solutions. Improve cross-project visibility and automate the flow of people, process and information in an iterative cycle of design-driven software delivery to realize a foundation across multi-platforms for business alignment, improved rationalization, ability to scale, enhanced team collaboration, automation, governance and reporting

Second TO None Application Lifecycle Management

STONS Developer Arena enables you to improve the following ALM components :
Application Development , Architecture & Design, build & Deploy , Portfolio strategy, Quality management & Testing, Requirements management , Change & Configuration management.

STONS Developer Arena enables Access to project assets from anywhere, anytime. It allows you to connect diverse teams and environments – even across different platforms. You can enjoy fast and immediate access to virtually any version of a file. STONS Developer Arena supports any sized organization and evolving organizational needs, furthermore , the solution allows teams to work on the same code or release at the same time with the ability to easily resolve conflicts, reduce confusion, and get more done in a short amount of time, also provides visibility of who is doing what and when – tracing the origin and details of changes which helps meet compliance mandates.

STONS Developer Arena Improves customer satisfaction, increases efficiency at every step, enhances efficiency of IT development & Reduces times to market.

STONS proven methodology is built on the following stages:

For further information contact us:
experts@stons.biz